

THE BOXER FACT SHEET
A MEMBER OF THE INDEPENDENT COLLECTION

Hotel Overview:

The Boxer is Boston's newest full-service boutique hotel, located in the heart of downtown Boston, nestled between the tasty North End and the storied cobblestone streets of Beacon Hill, just one block from TD Garden. The Boxer exudes a relaxed sophistication with an urban industrial chic design that incorporates hints of Boston. An 1860's archived map of Boston spans the entire lobby ceiling; while a vintage hotel key rack with antique style gold keys greets guests checking in at the front desk.

Guestrooms are custom-designed with the unique architecture of the historic Flatiron building in mind. Rooms are painted a deep slate blue and furnished with industrial inspired modern open frame wardrobes, softened by fisherman's knit bed scarf in a classic plaid pattern over a tufted bed. Work spaces are punctuated with ergonomic desk chairs reminiscent of classic Scandinavian design and bathrooms feature custom designed vanities with Calcutta marble tops. The Boxer utilizes the charm of the building's unique shape, to provide a new and different experience with each room key.

The hotel's name is symbolic of and celebrates the independent spirit of individuals who stand strong for their beliefs, bringing forth the very essence of Boston as a proud, loyal city with an unshakeable sense of itself and its significance in history. The Boxer is a member of the Independent Collection, a growing portfolio of boutique hotels inspired by authentic neighborhoods, local heritage and indigenous travel experiences.
